Dear Friends,

“Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ who has blessed us in Christ with every spiritual blessing in the heavens, as he chose us in him, before the foundation of the world, to be holy and without blemish before him.” We all know that Saint Paul was not perfect. Neither are we. But Paul recognized his blessings. In the second reading today in his Letter to the Ephesians he praises God and reminds the Greeks at Ephesus, and us, who we are, what we have been given, and how we are called to live our lives. He shows us that it is so much easier to be holy and without blemish when we begin with praise and gratitude.

Last week, Paul described his own weakness as the “thorn in his side.” Today he remembers that we are called, blessed and chosen by God. The one who once was persecuting the followers of the Way, after having a personal interaction with Christ and experiencing his own conversion, dedicated himself to the proclamation of the kingdom. He recognizes the power of Jesus in his life and in the life of the community. He tells us that in Jesus, we have...

redemption by his blood
the forgiveness of transgressions grace that he lavished upon us knowledge of the mystery of his will

In him, we...

were chosen are destined in accord with the purpose of the One who accomplishes all things according to the intention of his will exist for the praise of his glory!

Consider the spiritual gifts God has given you. Reflect on the call to holiness. Think about the way you have shared - and are sharing your gifts. Jesus sends his disciples out to proclaim the Kingdom of God. That mandate lives today. The role of the Christian in the world is to proclaim the Kingdom. In fact, sharing the Good News is part of our mission statement. I think we should reflect on these words, penned five years ago when we became one, more than we do. These words ought to drive all that we do in our parish - in our clubs and ministries, in our school and Family of Faith program, and in the churches of our homes. We honor the traditions of our parish and welcome all to unite in prayer and the Sacraments. Loved by God and guided by the Holy Spirit, we share the good news of Jesus Christ through joyful worship, faithful formation, and dedicated service.

When we consider the spiritual and corporal gifts that God has bestowed on us, and they are so many, God invites us to respond in gratitude, remembering that God chose us before the foundation of the world. As Father Mike Schmitz said to a packed church on Monday at our Saint Joseph Church, “we matter to God.” Since we matter to God, and if we can surrender our lives to God, as Father Bradley Zamora sang so well during adoration, we can strive for holiness and blamelessness in our lives.

Even though they were not always holy and blameless, Jesus sent the disciples out in pairs. This action reminds us of the communal nature of our faith and faith development. We are not in this journey alone. Jesus gives us one another to support, challenge and encourage one another in the task of evangelization. Sadly, our society is becoming increasingly individualistic. We hide behind our screens and have lost the value of face-to-face communication. Ear buds prevent interpersonal communication. Some of our best conversations are happening via snapchat. I've witnessed siblings communicating via their devices, at the dinner table – to each other! We must break the lone ranger pattern of our society and remember we are all in this together. We must admit and conquer our addiction to our devices. The community and participation in its life is paramount. Get involved!

In his admonition to the ones he sends (that includes us), Jesus reminds us to live simply. We need not overstuff our lives with things. Living simply encourages an association with the lowly and a reliance on God. Possessions do not a person make. Realizing that, we can follow the disciples' example, and proclaim the kingdom – right here and right now.

Peace,

A handwritten signature in black ink that reads "Rev. Wayne T. Davis". The signature is fluid and cursive, with a long horizontal stroke extending from the end.

PS On Monday July 22, pilgrims, youth and adults, leave for our annual pilgrimage to Lourdes. We will have a departure Mass at 5:00pm. You are welcome to join us for Mass. As is our custom, we will carry your petitions with us and deliver them to the shrine. You can drop yours at either parish office or email them to me.
